

Fun for all on the croquet lawn

DUNDONALD croquet-ers stepped out onto their lawn for the Flower Power Cup.

Sponsored by Bizzie Lizzies Flowers, the day brought together members young and old for some fun.

Starting with a pre-match Easter egg hunt and croquet relay race for the junior members, the adults then took part in a sudden death pairs knock-out competition.

The first round took out early favourites including 2007 treble winner Jamie Shedden who has yet to find his form this season.

Major title holder, Ian Shedden, paired with rank outsider, Gordon Edgar, stormed their way through the first few rounds 4-2, 4-0, 4-0 before going on to beat contenders Douglas Shedden and Angie Boyd 4-3 in a closely fought semi-final.

Meanwhile, the bottom half of the table was dominated by an outstanding performance by Jennifer Barclay and Hayley Duckworth winning 4-0, 4-1 and 4-1 before being dispatched by the formidable pairs team of Ronnie Zorget and Jackie Meader 4-1 in the second semi-final.

Teams Edgar/Shedden and Meader/Zorget both struck off well for the final game, with Edgar running the first hoop to take an early lead.

Meader responded strongly by swiftly taking the next two hoops leaving Edgar to steal hoop four. Meader then ran hoop five before expertly scoring hoop six from 15 feet to win the game 4-2.

To find out more about the club, visit www.dundonaldcroquetclub.org

HAVING A BALL: Nikki Sully and son Olly during the croquet relay race.

BUDDING SUCCESS: Competition sponsor Hayley Duckworth, of Bizzie Lizzies Flowers, right, presents the cup to winners Jackie Meader and Ronnie Zorget.