

STANDARD COMMUNITY PHOTO

Croquet set have a ball

A FANCY dress party helped raise £550 for Dundonald Croquet Club.

About 100 revellers went to the Heroes and Villains themed party held at the Old Castle Bar and Restaurant in Dundonald.

The money raised on the night, which included a raffle, disco and buffet, will be spent on the club.

Steven Easton, the club's secretary, said: "There are already plans in place to improve the croquet lawn, create a market garden and add a children's play area."

Dundonald Croquet Club hosts numerous competitions and social events throughout the summer with the season starting in early April.

MAKE UP: Emma Duckworth won best dressed female as The Joker and is pictured being presented with her prize by Jamie Shedden.

GRAPPLE STAR: Craig McQuiston was a winner in fancy dress as wrestler Hulk Hogan. Angie Boyd handed over his prize.